JOB PLACEMENT SERVICE ESTABLISHED

MRS. BESSIE GERMAN has been named the coordinator for the job placement service at Shelton State. All jobs listed will be posted outside Mrs. German's office, 102-B, Skyland Campus. For additional information, call 391-2242.

WHAT'S NEW WITH THE ENVIRONMENT

Don't forget to throw all aluminum drink cans in the special "green top" recycling bins that are set up around campus. This is the first step in Shelton's comprehensive program to improve our environment. Any other ideas should be given to Bruce Bizzoco in the President's office, Skyland Campus.

SPRING FLING SUCCESS

Hats off to Billy Hogue and the rest of the Community Relations Committee for the Spring Fling held this past Friday. Students who will be recognized Honors Night and Faculty and Staff of the college joined forces for food and fun.

Lee Albritton and Wade Cooper organized the teams and at the end of the day it was undecided as whether the Fifteenth Streeters or the Gaylord Techers won the volleyball tournament.

ADVANCED ARSON CONFERENCE SCHEDULED

An advanced arson conference will be held at the State Fire College, May 22-25. The conference will be held in cooperation with the Alabama Arson Prevention Task Force and the Alabama Association of Arson Investigators. The class will be limited to 75 students. For additional information, contact Phillip Hamrick, 759-1508.

TWO DANCE SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

Two local students have received scholarships in dance from Shelton State Community College. The scholarships will be effective for the 1990-91 school year.

The two students receiving the scholarships are Stephanie Carmen Henry and Sandra Christine Lee.

Ms. Henry is currently a senior at Tuscaloosa County High School and a dance student of the Martha Jamison School of Ballet.

Ms. Lee is a freshman at Shelton State Community College and has been named the Outstanding Student in Ballet at the school. She is a resident of Duncanville, Alabama.

Louise Crofton is chairman of the department of dance for the college. These scholarship recipients and Shelton's other students of dance were honored recently at the dance honors ceremony.
